COLT CHEYNE

Chef Colt Cheyne has built his career around a deep respect for fresh, locally sourced ingredients and a passion for creating innovative yet approachable dishes.

Colt trained at Le Cordon Bleu, where he graduated at the top of his class. Over the past 22 years at Santa Anita Park, he has worked his way up through the ranks of Pastry Chef, Production/Banquet Chef, and Executive Sous Chef, and has served as Executive Chef for the past four years. He was also the Chef/Owner of Monrovia Bakery, where he honed his craft in artisanal bread making and elevated wedding cake design to an art form. It was here that he mastered the balance of precision and creativity, building a loyal following with his signature sourdough loaves and custom, show-stopping cakes. His time at the bakery deepened his respect for the science of baking and reinforced his belief that every great creation starts with passion and patience.

Colt's cooking style blends modern American flavors with classical French technique, focusing on pushing culinary boundaries and enhancing flavors. His career highlights include completing eight world-class Breeders' Cups, two Triple Crown champion events and the prestigious Split Rock World Class horse jumping events.

When he's not in the kitchen, Colt enjoys being a father and husband and embarking on adventures wherever the wind may take him. He believes that the secret to life is effort, a philosophy that reflects in his dedication to his craft. Colt currently serves as the Executive Chef at Santa Anita Racetrack, where he continues to create bold, creative dishes that delight guests.
