|     | 2/7 | SA 5f 1:01.2h TT B+ | Solo five furlong training track drill for Baltas, breezed to the top :24.3 and :37 flat, then was asked very lightly through the lane and came home well, up in 1:01.2 with something left. Has plenty of speed but should be able to settle off a hot pace sprinting if the situation dictates. VIDEO:  |                |      |
|     | 2/1 | SA 4f :48h TT B+    | Quick-actioned filly went smoothly without pressure in this solo half-mile training track drill for Baltas, final three furlongs in :12 flat and :35.4, nice move. Won on the front end two-turning at Del Mar in her U.S. debut but we suspect she might be most effective sprinting. VIDEO:              |                |      |

|     | 12/31 | SA 4f :49.3h C+ | Caught a glimpse of this maiden by Mshawish in late December in team drill inside Letsgetlucky (same time) for Koriner, splits of :24.3 and :49.3 on our watches while appearing a bit green and a tad awkward under mild coaxing. Haven't seen him since, tough to gauge, maybe a down the road type. VIDEO:   |                |      |

|     | 2/7   | SA 4f :49.3h B  | Worked inside Laurel River (4f, :49.2h) for Baffert and did well as usual, splits of :12.1, :36.1 and :48.4 on our watches from the 3/8ths pole to the 7/8ths pole, appearing a tad the best. Ran well when runner-up both starts (good news) but was beaten at odds-on both times (bad news). Cal-bred sophomore should find a field he can beat soon. VIDEO:  |                |      |

|     | 2/8  | SA                 | 5f | 1:01.2h  | C+                 | Worked outside Sybil's Kitty (5f, 101.3h) for Mulhall and finished about a half length back at the wire while under urging, not impressive, final quarter mile in :25.1. Maiden claiming material at this stage. VIDEO:   |      |
|     | 1/16 | SA                 | 4f | :49.2hg  | C-                 | Gate work inside Chaos Reigns (5f, 1:00.1hg) for Mulhall, stride-for-stride for the first three furlongs but then steadily fading, splits of :24.3, :36.3 and :49.2, more than five lengths behind when eased up. Really doesn't look like much based on this drill but is bred for turf so maybe that will help. VIDEO:  |      |
| 4   | 4    | Whiskey Talk       |    |          | Jessica Pyfer      | Brian Koriner   | 15/1 |
|     | 2/5  | SA                 | 5f | 1:01h    | C+                 | Worked outside Like the Wind (same time) for Koriner and was second best by a length at the wire while losing ground under urging from the furlong pole home, splits of :11.3 and :36.2 for the final three furlongs. Bred for turf on both sides so that's an option but looks very much like maiden claiming material on the dirt.  |      |
| 5   | 5    | Judas              |    |          | Mario Gutierrez    | Ben Cecil   | 12/1 |
|     | 1/20 | SA                 | 4f | :49.4h   | TT B-              | Worked inside Queen Larissa Jane (4f, :50.1h TT) on training track for Cecil and was much. best through the lane without being asked, final three furlongs in :37.4. Runs low to the ground, seems to have a bit of ability, workmate isn't much. A late foal (June) and perhaps late developing, the son of Square Eddie is getting fit and seems likely to debut sprinting on grass. VIDEO: |      |
| 6   | 6    | Cargo              |    |          | Flavien Prat       | Philip D'Amato  | 5/2  |

Point of Entry gelding should be live at first asking and based on pedigree almost certainly will debut on grass. Seems fit enough. VIDEO:         |      |
| 7   | 7    | Like the Wind      |    |          | Juan Hernandez     | Brian Koriner   | 4/1  |
|     | 2/5  | SA                 | 5f | 1:01h    | B-                 | In blinkers, inside Whiskey Talk (5f, 1:01h) for Koriner and responded to some urging in the final furlong to be drawing clear in the closing stages, final three furlongs in :11.3 and :36.2, not bad. Phantom Wildcat colt has been in training a long time and seems finally ready to make the entries vs. state-bred foes. VIDEO:   |      |
| 8   | 8    | Gerlach's          |    |          | Abel Cedillo       | Vladimir Cerin  | 6/1  |
|     | 1/14 | SA                 | 5f | 1:04.1h  | TT C+              | Saw him once last month in a training track drill outside Quinnie (5f, 1:04.2h TT) for Cerin and was best while breezing, final quarter in a slow :27.2, displaying high action and never changing leads. Grazen gelding may have some ability but at this stage appears to be a down the road type. VIDEO:   |      |

|     | 2/4  | SA                 | 4f | :48.2h   | TT B               | In blinkers, solo training track drill for Puype while looking sharp through the lane, nice late kick without being asked much. Had a run last month and finished fifth but seems highly likely to come on from that outing. Worth following. VIDEO:  |      |
| 11  | 11   | Marksman On Target |    |          | Eswan Flores       | Gary Stute  | 30/1 |

Disappointed in debut, certainly can improve but still has a ways to go. VIDEO:   |      |

McCarthy and left that one far behind while under some urging through the lane, splits of :24.1, :36.1 and 1:02 flat on our watches, okay move but certainly not great. Was far back in debut, may improve, but will have to. VIDEO:   |      |

Union Rags colt has a bit of improvement in him but probably can't beat a real good maiden at this stage in his career.   |      |
| 6   | 6    | Chasing Fame     | Mario Gutierrez  | Doug O'Neill  | 4/1  |
|     | 2/7  | SA 6f            | 1:14.4h C+       | No blinkers, worked outside Play Chicken (6f, 1:14h) for O'Neill and was about a half length behind at the wire and a few lengths back when galloping out to 7/8 pole, final half mile on our watches in :50 flat, never really asked much but not finishing up as well as hoped. Really hasn't stepped forward after being well regarded to begin his career. VIDEO:   |      |
|     | 1/17 | SA 4f            | :48.2h B         | No blinkers (scheduled to add them in his next start) while outside Sabuda (same time) for O'Neill and was pulling early while under a stout hold every step of the way to prove best by almost a length at the wire, :48.4 on our watches, quite keen. Been a very good worker in the past but hasn't lived up to his a.m. abilities so far in the afternoon. Connections still trying to figure him out. VIDEO: |      |
